In the light of recent changes in the field of education, everybody needs to be equipped with the skills of academic writing and proper citations. And, since teachers and teacher educators are the torch bearers of such practices, they need to be aware of such skills of academic writing and proper citations like in-text citation and end-text citation. Needless to say, there is also need for exploring available relevant researches and practices in this field. For learning about such researches and knowledge generated in the field, the typical need arose for a Workshop on Academic Writing and Citation resulting into learning about recent development in this area.

Hence, in order to cater to this very need of the hour, and being one of the premier institutes in the field of teacher education, the onus lies on us for collecting and disseminating such knowledge lying with teachers, teacher educators and practitioners, to cope up with the changing scenario and making awareness about the recent trends in the field and explore the further arena in this field of academic writing.
