

Nukkad Natak (Street play)

This Zest turn into full to Nautanki wala, drive everyone to the street, create an environment enchanted with shouts, drums, songs, humour, emotions and the roar of audience. Convey a message that will ignite the spark for a better society. Drum it up folks and let everyone enjoy an inspiring drama experience. Reach the common people and spring forth an intellectual revolution in them.

Go crazy and Halla Bol..!!

Rules and Regulations:

1. Team Size: 12-20 members and 2 accompanists.
2. Time Limit: 15 to 20 minutes.
(Note: Clock will start as soon as the team enters the arena. Set up time included)
3. Only the people registered as the team, shall be allowed to perform in the street play.
4. The play may be in Hindi/English or both.
5. Teams are expected to perform at an open air venue with audience at all sides.
6. Points will be deducted for exceeding the time limit and stepping out of the boundary beforehand.
7. Obscenity may lead to disqualification.
8. No electricity or electronic gadgets, flame or any dangerous materials is allowed.
9. No props will be provided.
10. Recorded music not allowed