

Prof. (Dr.) Parsanjeet Kumar
Pro Vice-Chancellor | Noida International University

Prof. (Dr.) Parsanjeet is a disciplined academician and educationist with a vision, value, understanding and carries with himself a legacy of quality education. He has contributed more than 22 years of his professional career in teaching, including 14 years of research experience in the field of higher education. He has served and associated with various renowned institutions in different domains and capacity.

In addition, he is being actively associated with several higher educational organizations & agencies namely, NAAC, NUEPA, NCTE & QCI to contribute in diverse fields of higher education. He has been honored with 9 awards for his contributions in the field of higher education. He has published more than 30 research papers & articles in national & international journals of repute. He has been invited as guest speaker by national & international organizations such as - National Institute of Technology & Research, New Delhi, Manav Rachana University, Women Economic Forum, Literature Web & Communication Today and BRICS International Forum. He has supervised more than 10 Ph.D.s till now.